

CNBC: NAACP chief says postmaster assurances for mail services ahead of election aren't enough

The head of the NAACP told CNBC on Friday that recent guarantees from the U.S. postmaster general about changes to mail service ahead of November's election are inadequate.

ABC News: NAACP Sues the Postal Service

NAACP president and CEO Derrick Johnson explains his organization's decision to file the lawsuit and what he hopes to hear in Postmaster General lawsuit.

CNN: NAACP Sues PostMaster General Over Mail in Delays Days Ahead of Election

NAACP President Derrick Johnson joins Bianna Golodryga to discuss why he sees Postmaster General's DeJoy's actions as a direct and deliberate threat to people of color.

NBC News: Into the NAACP vs the Postal Service

In this episode of Into America, we talk to Jay Thurmond, a veteran Black postal worker about what it is like doing his job in this moment. Trymaine Lee sits down with NAACP President Derrick Johnson to understand what his organization is fighting for in its suit against the USPS.

Black Enterprise: NAACP President: Postmaster General Louis DeJoy is Lying

NAACP President Derrick Johnson said Postmaster General Louis DeJoy is lying when he called his restructuring of postal services a measure to improve operational efficiency. "It goes beyond being disingenuous," Johnson told The Hill Thursday. "When you take sorting machines out of the post office, that were expressly put in to be rapid sorters to ensure mail is timely, and the rationale is making it quicker, that is lying."

Washington Post: 2020 March on Washington: What you need to know about the civil rights rally in D.C.

The event is being led by Sharpton's National Action Network in partnership with the NAACP, National Urban League, Hispanic Federation, unions, clergy and civil rights groups, among others. The event will be broadcast online in its entirety by the NAACP, which is also hosting three days of digital programming for those who cannot or do not want to attend in person.

Fast Company: See the powerful branding for the 2020 Virtual March on Washington

How do you capture the physicality and energy of an in-person march when most people will experience it through a screen?

Crisis Magazine: NAACP Launches "Black Voices Change Lives" Campaign

The nation's largest and most highly recognized civil rights organization, announced the "Black Voices Change Lives" campaign, an unprecedented effort to engage Black voters across the country by deploying a blend of traditional and innovative turnout tactics in a select number of battleground states.

WPXI: NAACP starts new campaign to get African-Americans to the polls

The NAACP is beginning a campaign called Black Voices Change Lives. African-American voter turnout in the 2016 election dropped 5% or more, according to organizers.

WAVY: Norfolk NAACP, Rep. Elaine Luria discuss social injustice, police reform at virtual town hall

Chatting about change: that was the focus of Thursday's virtual town hall with the Norfolk NAACP and Congresswoman Elaine Luria. The event touched on social injustice, diversity and police reform in Hampton Roads and beyond.

WSFA: NAACP, Red Cross partner on blood drive

Branches of the Alabama NAACP and the American Red Cross partnered in Montgomery to hold a blood drive honoring Dr. Charles Drew, the creator of the first blood bank. "We're donating blood to help this community and to help those that suffer COVID-19 and we hope to get as many people out here as possible. We've done our part. We hope the others will come out and join us to help make our community safer and to help somebody out," said Mary Crenshaw, chairwoman for Metro Montgomery NAACP health.

KNWA: Northwest Arkansas NAACP gives out masks to students

The largest civil rights organization in the country is stepping up to the plate to make sure your kids are protected against COVID-19. With the help of the community, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was able to donate more than 500 masks to Asbell students today, thanks to the “Mask to School” project.

WGLT: Collaboration Is Key In B-N NAACP's Latest Action Plan

Moving forward with its advocacy for the civil and political rights of African Americans, the Bloomington-Normal chapter of the NAACP revealed its new strategic plan Sunday with an eye on reform.

STATEMENTS:

- Virtual March on Washington Programming to Feature Speaker Nancy Pelosi, Sen. Cory Booker, Stacey Abrams, Rev. William Barber, Among Others
- The Response to the Pandemic
- President and CEO of the NAACP Issues Condemning Statement in the Shooting of Jacob Blake
- NAACP Sues Postmaster General of the United States Postal Service to Restore Reliable Mail Delivery Ahead of November Elections

Donate

UPCOMING EVENTS:

20 20 VIRTUAL MARCH ON WASHINGTON

AUG 27-28, 2020

OUR VOICE.
OUR MOVEMENT.

In commemoration of the 57th anniversary of the March on Washington, a coalition of civil rights and social justice leaders will lead a Virtual March on Washington on August 27 and August 28, 2020. Just days after both the Democratic National Convention and the Republican National Convention, thousands will join the virtual march to mobilize ahead of the November elections.

Stay Updated

Register

DONATE

JOIN US

Please pass this email on to someone you know who needs to be part of this movement for justice and equality.

Was this email forwarded to you?

Add your name here to make sure you receive all the important NAACP updates.

© 2020 National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

Find Your Local Unit | Unsubscribe

4805 Mt. Hope Drive
Baltimore MD 21215